

70th Anniversary Ferraris Part II

By Cathy Roush

In FML 4417, I shared with you an ambitious project I have been working on during the past year. My ultimate goal is to identify all 350 serial numbers of the 70th Anniversary liveried Ferraris.

There are 70 different liveries; Style Icons as Ferrari's official website refers to them. Color combinations in plain speak – and these 70 liveries have been applied to five models of Ferrari: 488 GTB, 488 Spider, GTC4Lusso, F12berlinetta, and California T.

I presented the first 19 liveries, from the decade 1947-1956, and the second 19 liveries, from the decade 1957-1966. At that time, I had serial numbers for 143 of the 190 liveries.

I gave you some background on selected liveries, and shared with you some statistics on the progress of this task. The response to my request for additional numbers was, well, underwhelming.

I did hear from a few people, mainly other folks also on the hunt for these numbers, and one authorized Ferrari dealer.

Since August 17, 23 serial numbers from those first 38 liveries have been added to the list, and photos for three unidentified cars were received. Would those three also come identified by the VIN??? ... oh well. Only one of the first 38 liveries is missing three numbers; only four of those 38 are missing two numbers.

That means I have 166 of the 190 liveries #1-38, almost 88 per cent. 19 liveries of the 38 have all five serial numbers (the three unidentified photos would complete three more liveries). I'm pleased.

Let's move on to the next 11 liveries, from the decade 1967-1976. As with many of the first 38 liveries, most of these pay homage to Ferrari's racing history, although the column in my spreadsheet for the inspiration serial number is depressingly sparse.

39	THE AMERICAN DREAM
40	THE CAN AM
41	BOLD YELLOW
42	THE DAYTONA
43	AZZURRO DINO
44	THE RED BOXER
45	THE SUNOCO
46	THE TARTAN
47	THE MID ENGINE
48	THE PROTOTYPE
49	THE LAUDA

THE AMERICAN DREAM: Livery #39. Named after the North American Racing Team, the 275 GTB/4*S NART Spyder is one of the most valuable Ferraris of all time due to its exclusivity - just 10 were built and they rarely change hands. The exterior for this livery is a very deep and fine metallic dark blue. The interior is black leather and dune colored richer furniture leather. This livery could have easily been in yellow. In the database we have the original colors for all ten, and three were yellow.

We have all five of the cars identified in this livery; the last one coming to me while I was writing this article!

THE DAYTONA: Livery #42. Named in recognition of Ferrari's 1-2-3 victory in the 24 Hours of Daytona in 1967. This livery is Blu NART with Rosso Ferrari leather with black Daytona seat stripes. An unusual choice, in my opinion. Aren't all Daytonas supposed to be red with black interior?

We only have three of the five identified, missing the 488 Spider and the F12berlinetta. But I've seen a photo of the 488 Spider ... in Canada ...

THE TARTAN: Livery #46. Based on a sophisticated rendition of the 365 GTC/4 from 1971 with an understated dark brown exterior, this car featured a tartan canvas and camel leather interior. I've not been able to identify the serial number of the inspiration, but our database has several C/4s with tartan interior. I think it goes well with the brown exterior.

We have four of these identified, missing the GTC4Lusso; ironic, don't you agree? We have a photo and believe the car is in the U.S.

THE TARTAN

THE LAUDA: Livery #49. This is the 1975 312 T that Niki Lauda drove to victory. Lauda won four out of five races mid-season before snatching the title at Monza by finishing third, while Clay Regazzoni's win in the same race secured the Constructors' Championship title for Ferrari. The car has a red body, and the white roof is adorned with the Italian flag.

We have all but the 488 Spider identified in this livery, and a photo of the missing car leads me to believe it is in Australia.

For this decade, we have all of the California T identified, a fact I neglected to mention in my previous article. All of the California T are also identified in the next two groups, as well as all of the 488 Spiders in the last two groups but I cannot place any importance to it other than we prefer Ferraris without roofs.

There are only 6 liveries from the period 1977-1996. Perhaps not the 'prettiest' period for Ferrari design, although I give a nod to the models chosen – there is no Mondial or 412.

50	THE MAGNUM PI based on the 308 GTS
51	THE RALLY CAR based on the 308 GTB
52	THE GTO not THAT GTO, the 288 GTO
53	AN 80s ICON based on the Testarossa
54	CELEBRATING AN ANNIVERSARY based on the F40
55	PURE PERFORMANCE based on the F50

Curiously enough, three of these six liveries have Bianco Italia as the basis for their exterior. THE MAGNUM PI is, of course, red; AN 80s ICON is gunmetal gray; and PURE PERFORMANCE is jet black.

Of the 30 serial numbers for this two decade range of liveries, 23 are identified. We only have one completed livery, CELEBRATING AN ANNIVERSARY. All of the California T are identified in this range.

CELEBRATING AN ANNIVERSARY

There are 7 liveries in the 1997-2006 decade:

56	PERSONALIZED
57	THE WEDDING GIFT
58	THE BARCHETTA
59	A BEAUTIFUL MACHINE
60	THE SCHUMACHER
61	THE CHALLENGER
62	THE SCAGLIETTI

Five of these liveries are based not on a specific car, but the model, so there may not be a single serial number as the inspiration, as with many of the earlier liveries.

PERSONALIZED is based on the 456M, featuring an understated design, with a silver exterior and a grey interior.

THE BARCHETTA is based on, well, the 2000 550 Barchetta. The exterior is Azzurro and the interior has both cream and black leather.

THE CHALLENGER is based on the Challenge Stradale, which was created to embody the pure spirit of competition. The exterior is Rosso Corsa with the Tricolore in a white stripe.

THE SCAGLIETTI is based on the 612 Scaglietti, which was named in honor of Sergio Scaglietti, and continues the great Ferrari 2+2 tradition. The exterior for this livery is Blu Tour de France and the interior has Blu Sterling and Tabacco leathers.

Surprisingly, the livery named A BEAUTIFUL MACHINE is based on the Enzo Ferrari. The exterior is Grigio Titanio and the interior is in red Cordura (nylon) with black leather. Why not call it The Enzo, I wonder.

However, THE WEDDING GIFT is based on the 360 Barchetta "Agnelli", a one-off model VIN ZF-FYT53B000120020, given by Gianni Agnelli to Luca Cordero di Montezemolo on his wedding day in 2000. It was a tribute to Agnelli's own car from the 1950s, and was silver with light interiors.

THE SCHUMACHER

THE SCHUMACHER is based on the F2003-GA car in which Michael Schumacher had seven victories, winning both the Drivers' and the Constructors' Championship. This could be S/N 229. The exterior is Rosso Corsa, with the central part of the roof and livery on the bottom part in Bianco, as was used on the Formula 1 car.

Of the 35 serial numbers, we have 28; only two completed liveries of the seven. We have all of the 488 Spiders in this livery identified, as well as all of the California T.

Finally, there are eight liveries for the period 2007-2017:

63	THE TEST DRIVER
64	THE CELEBRATION FERRARI
65	PLEIN AIR PRESSURE
66	DRIVING EMOTION
67	THE PRO
68	THE PINNACLE
69	PURE ADRENALINE
70	A IS FOR APERTA

Again, these liveries are based on models:

THE TEST DRIVER: 2007 FXX Pacchetto Evoluzione was built only for track use for Ferrari's FXX programme dedicated to an exclusive circle of clients, whose feedback on the cars plays an important role in product development – so much so that they have become known as "client test drivers". These cars are Rosso Corsa with exterior accents in Bianco Avus.

THE CELEBRATION FERRARI: The Scuderia Spider 16M was a special limited series built in 2008 to commemorate Ferrari's 16th F1 Constructors' Championship title. This livery is Grigio Silverstone with black interior.

PLEIN AIR PRESSURE: The 2010 SA Aperta was a limited edition roadster created to celebrate 80 years of collaboration between Ferrari and Pininfarina. Its bright blue exterior and black and blue interiors perfectly express the joys of open top driving and being at one with the sky.

I'll admit the name of this livery stumped me ... so I Googled it. Plein air painting is the act of painting outdoors.

PLEIN AIR PRESSURE

DRIVING EMOTION is based on the 599 GTO; THE PRO is based on the 458 Italia GT2/3/E series; THE PINNACLE is based on the LaFerrari; PURE ADRENALINE is based on the track version of the LaFerrari, the FXX K; and A IS FOR APERTA is based on the 458 Speciale Aperta and celebrates the huge success of the 458 model.

Of these 40 liveries, we have 30 identified. Two complete liveries, PURE ADRENALINE and THE PRO. All of the 488 Spiders are identified. Only two serial numbers were added to my spreadsheet since August. Surely all of these cars have been built, but only 75 per cent identified.

There you have it. Now for some mind-numbing statistics.

Of the 350 desired serial numbers, I have 292 identified, about 83 per cent, much owed to the kindness of strangers. I don't delude myself that I will ever have all 350. The good news is I believe my haystack has been defined. The lowest and highest serial number has not changed with the additions since August.

The lowest serial number identified as a 70th Anniversary car is California T, livery #29, THE HOT ROD. Based on 250 GT Berlinetta SWB Competizione "SEFAC Hot Rod" S/N 2689 GT and features a silver body with a blue racing stripe.

The highest serial number identified as a 70th Anniversary car is 488 Spider, livery #26, SOME LIKE IT RED. In 1959 while Marilyn Monroe was causing a stir in the legendary film "Some Like It Hot", Ferrari released the legendary 250 GT Pinin Farina Coupé. The livery on this model combines Rosso Bordeaux with a Grigio Conchiglia roof, over a vinyl and leather interior in Nero.

Obviously the cars were not built 'in <serial number> order'.

There is one instance where four of the cars in a particular livery are within a few numbers of the others. (THE AGNELLI, livery #3). But then the fifth car's serial number is 4,000 numbers away!

We have identified three of the five cars in THE PHIL livery #35 ... and those are less than 300 digits apart. In THE TEST DRIVER we only have two identified and they are less than 200 digits apart. Perhaps the missing cars will be nestled right in there.

Most often the highest and lowest serial numbers in any livery are 5,000 to 6,000 numbers apart. With livery #32, THE ACTOR, the lowest serial number is 11,487 digits away from the highest.

You'd think they'd want to get all cars of a particular color done at the same time for efficiency. But again, that's me ... Ferrari has certainly perfected the manufacturing of its vehicles.

Before I lose you, my table identifies 55 of the 70 488 GTB (with photos of ten of the missing 15); 62 of the 70 488 Spiders (photos of four of the missing eight); 60 of the 70 California T (photos of four of the missing ten); 58 of the 70 GTC4Lusso (photos of eight of the missing 12); and 57 of the 70 F12berlinetta (photos of nine of the missing 13).

I have 27 liveries of the 70 for which all serial numbers are identified (again, if I had serial numbers to accompany the aforementioned photos, 30 liveries would be complete).

Fortunately there is no livery without at least one identified car, and only one livery for which we have but two of the five serial numbers. Twenty-five liveries only need one more car to be complete.

Does your brain hurt as much as mine does right now? Nor are all of the cars are in the U.S. That would be too easy. Better yet if they would all show up at the next Annual Meet or Cavallino. Fortunately I made friends around the world also working on this project who learned to share in kindergarten.

All the cars are distinguished by the exclusive commemorative logo of the 70th anniversary along with an ID plate with the name of the model that inspired it. And before you ask, yes, the community collecting these numbers have spotted cars claiming to be a 70th Anniversary livery but missing the all-important logo.

These are all 2017 and 2018 model year cars; but the 350 cars seemingly fall into an abyss of 13,484 possible serial numbers. Of those 13,484 possibilities, we have 11,846 blanks. Or 1,638 identified, and of those 1,638, 292 are 70th Anniversary cars. I'm really looking for 58 cars in 11,846 blanks. So you see what I'm up against.

PURE ADRENALINE

It hasn't deterred my enthusiasm; when I started I had very few serial numbers. Please send me your VIN and identify the livery. All information will be kept confidential.

This also is a plea to dealerships. I respect the privacy of your customers ... all I really want is the VIN, the livery, and either city or state.

The official website proved to be a valuable resource for these articles: https://auto.ferrari.com/en_EN/70-anniversary/liveries-view/.

And, just in case you were wondering what my NEXT project will be, how about the 488 Pista Piloti, introduced in 2018 and only offered to customers involved in the Prancing Horse's race car programs. How difficult can this be, they are only producing them in four colors. But I don't know much more than that.

Silver/red, matching numbers, 78000 kms. The car is in outstanding mechanical and cosmetic condition. Full engine and driveline rebuild by Marque specialist, Patrick Otis, in the mid 1990's. The motor suspension drive train brakes and all mechanical systems are spot-on. Flawless paint, excellent chrome, top and interior. Converted by Strahman in the 1970's and perfected by Steve Moal, a noted body fabrication shop. This car cannot be told from one done by Scaglietti and there are none better. Full ownership history is known. It's beautiful to look at and a joy to drive. It's ready for the show or rally circuit.
