

Celebration 2022 By Jim Weed

It's well known I like airplanes and Ferraris; well, exotic cars in general. To be honest I like all cars. So when an opportunity to see both arrives, I must act.

Celebration Exotic Car Festival just happens to be the same weekend as SUN 'n FUN Areospace Expo in Lakeland, Fla. Would it be possible to cram both events into the same weekend? Of course!

Friday would have been a normal day to complete the layout of the previous issue. Fortunately, Mark Sonnerly provided his report on Retromobile early and I could get it all massaged with photos by Thursday.

It's an eight-hour drive to Lakeland and the gates don't open until 9am, so we need to leave by midnight.

I'll spare the details but, yes, I was there to be first through the gate. Linda and I saw lots of airplanes and did some shopping. The warbirds are my favorite and there are few places you can go to see eight P-51 Mustangs, two P-40 Warhawks, an F4U Corsair and an F6F Hellcat.

Those were the fighters. The vintage bombers were a B-25 and a B29. For those who like more modern military equipment there were F-15s, F-16s, a C-17 and a B1 Lancer.

As a mechanic and a taxpayer, I could appreciate the technology contained in all the government aircraft. I found a rivet on the side of each one I bought and paid for.

After a walk around to see the sights, we headed up the road to Celebration. Celebration is a Disney planned community with quiet streets and quaint homes. The main hotel is the Grand Bohemian Hotel by Marriott.

It is there we pickup our credentials for the night's activities. We checked into our hotel for a quick nap, shower and change to catch the buses to Universal Studios City Walk.

The bus ride is amazing. A police escort leads the caravan through the town of Celebration and onto the freeway, blocking off the highway for us to pass unimpeded. It is always a special experience to be treated like royalty.

There is a reason for all the special attention. For nineteen years the Celebration Exotic Car Festival has contributed to the Make-A-Wish Foundation. Every person is a volunteer and every dollar collected from entry fees goes to Make-A-Wish.

We arrive at Universal Studios City Walk and are shepherded to a courtyard between two bars. One houses a piano bar and two players are battling it out with various tunes. Food kiosks dot the courtyard and there were plenty of delights to sample.

The other bar has karaoke. The open bar allows many to overcome their inhibition. Karaoke can be fun or awful to watch but I must say there were several of our group who deserved and received ovations for their rap or singing. Needless to say, a good time was had by all.

Saturday starts early. The best time to get photographs is before crowds fill the streets. The brick-paved main street has Ferraris down both sides. The road terminates at City Lake and splits to the left and right.

To the right, Ferrari of Central Florida has displayed a black Roma, SF90 Stradale, 488 Pista, a white 458 Speciale, 812 Superfast, and a 348 ts.

Farther down are several Lamborghinis, Lotus, Aston Martin, and a bunch of DeLorean.

The DeLorean contingent is strong at this event with ten or twelve displayed and there are always one or two mocked up as 'Back to the Future' cars. Kids young and old flock around these examples.

You can hear words like flux capacitor, Marty McFly and hoverboard if you stand still for a while.

Heading to the left end of the road were more exotics. McLaren and Pantera, Porsche and Bricklin could be found. Bricklin? Yes, three of them.

There were several people and not just children who would walk by and inquire as to what it was. The owners were having a field day answering questions and taking photos of people with their cameras. Or should I say phone?

Around the bend were some American cars. A cou ple of early Corvettes and a Viper. A Camaro, or was it a Firebird; I don't remember.

A Mustang or two and suddenly I saw it. The best car in the show. Well, not the best overall, because that would have to be a Ferrari, but one close to my heart.

An orange Edsel Pacer convertible stood before me. It looks exactly like my Edsel, but everything that is turquoise on mine was orange. My turquoise really stands out, but this one looked good in orange. I wish I had brought mine down, both would have looked good sitting next to each other.

The only car larger than the Edsel was a 1960 Cadillac convertible and next to it was a Fiat 500. One had chrome and fins to excess and the other looked like it could fit in the trunk as a spare.

The Ferraris on display on Main Street were mostly modern cars. The earliest of them was a couple of 308 GTs, one was an Si and the other QV. The QV was owned by Bill Scott; he is a fireman, and drives his car often.

Amid a sea of red 360s, Al Cartlidge's titanium 360 Spider with bordeaux interior stood out of the crowd. A few cars farther up was Debbie Pyle's 458 Italia to start a group of 458s.

The other side of the street featured a Portofino, a GTC4Lusso and a pretty California in light blue metallic with cream interior brought by Lawrence Heil.

488s were well represented with a Blu Corsa 488 Spider brought by David Varwig standing out among the red and yellow cars nearby.

Towards the end of the row was Tefft Smith and his two replica classic Ferraris. One a GTO and the other a Testa Rossa. Both these cars draw a large crowd. Tefft spent hours answering questions and letting children sit in the GTO.

The smile on their faces says it all. It is a memorable experience and who knows what that experience will spark in the future. This is what makes Celebration special.

The owners who displayed their cars have contributed in bringing these special automobiles for the public to see. Families with children stroll along the street to view and enjoy all of the different exotic and interesting cars.

At show center is a special area, that for an extra donation it is possible to go behind the fence and get up close to other special cars. There was one Ferrari displayed, a Monza SP2, brought by the Rare Wheels Collection.

I say extra donation, but that is a bit of a misnomer; the show is free. Show up and walk in, enjoy the cars, and go home, all without spending anything except lunch and ice cream from the various stores lining the streets.

But the reason for the show is to raise money for Make-A-Wish Foundation. The participants are the ones making the donation and the entry fee is a part of that. There is also a dinner at the Waldorf Astoria.

The Saturday evening dinner is an exquisite affair. Outside the ballroom is a silent auction with items ranging from model cars to multi-night stays in the Bahamas.

ZD Wines from Napa Valley provides pairings to each dinner course. The ballroom is packed, and conversation flows freely. My table has several young people and two couples I had never met before.

As we introduce ourselves, I meet Murray and Tonya. Murray is one of the volunteers coordinating the event with Universal Studios and the Waldorf. He handles all this with a calm demeanor since his business is providing VIP experiences to many of the parks around Orlando.

I also discover one of the young people is Zayne, a Make-A-Wish child. His parents, Chaz and Lori, are there along with his brother and girlfriend. I'm sitting with the guest of honor!

There was a short video chronicling the discovery and recovery of Zayne's cancer diagnosis. He had brain cancer that was causing double vision. The tumor was operated on and then radiation treatments continued for two years. First diagnosed at twelve years old, he is now eighteen and has been cancer free for four years.

Zayne's wish had been granted after he had completed his treatments. Hawaii? Yes, that was the dream to help him through all the difficult days in the hospital. When his wish was granted, he and his family got to spend time on the beaches and explore the island through the generosity of people like us.

Today, Zayne is vibrant; he loves rock climbing and other outdoor activities. He hopes to be a 3D graphic designer one day. Who knows? There may be a video game with his name as designer in the future.

That is exactly why we are here tonight. To celebrate one success story and to raise funds to help fuel more success stories. After dinner there were several items auctioned. This is where the big money is raised.

Things like a private tour of Jay Leno's garage or a VIP concert experience with three bands: REO Speedwagon, STYX, and Loverboy including autographed guitars.

Hall of Fame quarterback Jim Kelly came on stage to encourage the crowd to bid on a signed jersey and football which also included a tailgate party and suite seats with Kelly at a football game of your choice. It was so popular at the end the winner and second up both got a package.

The generosity of the patrons was amazing and this year a total of $400,000 was raised. Each year Jeff and Jim Ippoliti have organized this event and throughout the nineteen years they have raised $4 million, all for Make-A-Wish.

Parents Lori and Chaz, with Jim Kelly and Zayne

My story of Celebration Exotic Car Festival is just a piece of the total event. Sunday there is a rally through the back roads of Florida. More than one hundred cars participated. Then there is a chance to drive your exotic on the banks of Daytona International Raceway. Monday and Tuesday are dedicated to spending track time on the speedway.

Daytona had a turnout of nearly three hundred cars. While I wasn't there, I know there were cars from the most exotic down to the mundane, all driving on this historic track. Of all the participants, I know one was having the time of his life.

Zayne got to choose which car he would like to ride in. I would bet there were more people willing to volunteer than Zayne could handle. I would also bet the smile will not leave for a long time after his ride.

Isn't this what it's all about?

Next year Celebration Exotic Car Festival will be held March 31 through April 4th. Since it will be the 20th anniversary, you should add this to your calendar and make plans to bring your car.

Next year's goal of $1 million should be easy to attain. How much is a child's smile worth?

Book Review: Franco-Britannic Autos Ltd 1st exclusive importer in France (1958-1968)

By Cyrille Jaquinot

Review by Jim Weed

Franco-Britannic Autos Ltd., goes further into the past than the Ferrari connection.

Walter Sleator was tasked to guide Rolls-Royce chassis through the body building process in France.

Rolls-Royce customers often purchased bare chassis and had French body builders create body forms for their car. Coach-built at its finest.

After the war, Sleator becomes friends with Battista Pinin Farina who soon introduces him to Ferrari.

By 1958, Ferrari is pushed to increase production and distributorships are set up in each country. Franco-Britannic becomes the very first and exclusive importer for France.

By the end of December 1968, Franco-Britannic Autos Ltd., is no longer the importer of Ferrari in France. The torch is passed onto Charles Pozzi.

Cyrille Jaquinot has filled the decade of Franco-Britannic's history with many period photos and stories. Individual Ferraris are featured with stories about their famous owners.

Franco-Britannic also supplied chase cars for the 24-Hours of LeMans. Not just the famous 250 GTE but others as a way to showcase the latest model from Ferrari.

Filled with photographs, invoices and advertisements, this book gives us a look into the history of Ferrari and how Franco-Britannic helped develop an organization in France to further the Ferrari brand.

Jaquinot has created a great homage to Ferrari history with the same high-quality stories and photos as he did with his other book 'Ferrari 330 America' as an homage to Chinetti.

Published by Blurb. 240 pages. Hardcover. Go to Blurb.com and search for Franco-Britannic. The English version is $201.86. It is also available in French.

The Ferrari Place

By Jim Hunter

Jim Hunter published in The Prancing Horse an excellent series about the Ferrari dealer in Tucker, GA.

His research produced more information than his previous articles could handle.

Hunter has gone into much more detail about how three personalities came together to create a small Ferrari parts business and went on to become one of the premier dealers in America.

The Ferrari Place is a fascinating look into how Ferrari business was conducted before corporate regulations and pressures homogenized the dealership experience.

Ewing Hunter (no relation), Wes Devoto and John Apen began with a goal of disseminating manuals to owners who, at the time, could not find information about the Ferraris they owned.

They developed a catalog that combined maintenance tips with parts for sale. This concept had never been done before with Ferrari parts.

The Ferrari Owners Survival Manual was, and still is, a coveted manual by most mechanics.

FAF Motorcars was a unique place to work for and it spawned many people involved in our world.

Steve Ahlgrim and Ted Rutland both got their start at FAF. I myself did two separate stints at FAF.

Hunter has captured the times and era when a need was filled. He describes what it was like to enjoy the FAF experience.

Every library has books on cars detailing all the various aspects of a particular model.

The Ferrari Place describes how a dealer in Tucker, GA., made a difference in America.

Run by enthusiasts, for enthusiasts, the FAF Motorcars story holds a place in history and should occupy a spot on your shelf.

“FERRARI FOREVER” OPENS AT THE ENZO FERRARI MUSEUM IN MODENA

AN EXHIBITION DEDICATED TO THE WORLD OF CLASSICHE, CELEBRATING 75 YEARS OF THE MARANELLO-BASED COMPANY.

Maranello, 12 March 2022: On 12 March 1947, Enzo Ferrari started up the Ferrari 125 S, the first car to bear his name.

The Ferrari that crossed the Maranello gates in 1947 was more than a new car, it was a declaration of intent, and the beginning of a 75-year culture of excellence built on craftsmanship, dedication, tradition, and innovation.

It is a culture that has created a stream of automotive masterpieces, each destined to transcend time.

Exactly 75 years to the day, Ferrari is celebrating its anniversary at the Enzo Ferrari Museum in Modena by opening the doors to Ferrari Classiche - a unique department that the public usually never sees.

Set up in 2006, it offers owners an exclusive service designed to protect the priceless heritage that classic Ferraris represent.

“Ferrari Forever” presents the work this department carries out and the services it offers - like the Certification of Authenticity, reserved for all Ferrari road cars, sports cars and prototypes over 20 years old.

This allows owners to obtain an official document certifying the full authenticity of their cars.

The exhibition takes visitors through the fascinating maintenance and restoration carried out in Ferrari Classiche’s workshop - processes that bring cars of all ages back to their original splendor.

This work relies on access to the foundry and machine tools that produced the original parts.

None of this would be possible without the expertise of highly specialized technicians who have in-depth knowledge of the secrets of Ferrari engines and the unique features of each model.

There is particular focus on the Historical Archive, a perfectly preserved collection of the assembly sheets of every Ferrari produced since 1947.

Access to the Archive ensures that all Ferrari Classiche’s work conforms exactly to the original designs.

The story of Ferrari Classiche’s work is complemented by 15 officially certified cars on display, including some restored by the department itself.

The essence of Ferrari’s history can be found in these vehicles, which embody the marque’s sporting soul.

There are unique Gran Turismo models like the 1956 250 GT Competizione Tour de France, by designer and coachbuilder Sergio Scaglietti.

The bodywork of some of Ferrari’s most alluring and victorious sports cars was shaped by master craftsmen at the Carrozzeria Scaglietti atelier.

The 250 GT’s trophy cabinet is one of the most extensive in sports car history, having won a record number of victories in its GT Class.

Another example of rare beauty in the exhibition is the 1959 250 GT Cabriolet, built in limited numbers by Pinin Farina.

Aimed at sophisticated clients who loved to frequent glamorous destinations on the Cote d’Azur and California, this elegant, open-topped Ferrari Gran Turismo offered balanced lines and a comfortable drive.

It was seen at the world’s most exclusive events and played a starring role on the big screen in Hollywood films, and in the daily lives of leading actors and international jetsetters like Barbara Hutton.

In addition to the classic cars on display, visitors will also have the opportunity to admire unique artefacts such as an original “mascherone” from the 1953 Ferrari 500 Mondial.

At the time, to make cars in line with the designer’s vision, coachbuilders would create a reference template to determine the vehicle’s final silhouette.

The metal sheets used - mainly aluminum at Ferrari - were shaped by hand and “sewn” together.

This beautiful piece of automotive art is testament to the extraordinary level of craftsmanship that flourished at Ferrari between the 1940s and the 1960s.

To mark its 75th anniversary, “Ferrari Forever” tells the story of a tradition of excellence that transcends time - one that will continue to innovate and evolve into the future.

It will also serve as a reminder that every Ferrari has the innate potential to become a future classic.

The exhibition will be open to the public at the Enzo Ferrari Museum in Modena from 12 March 2022 until 17 February 2023.

The Ferrari Place

I am excited to announce THE FERRARI PLACE, a book compiled and expanded from a 3-part series on FAF Motorcars that ran in the Ferrari Club of America Quarterly, PRANCING HORSE.

Situated at the end of a gravel-strewn road behind a concrete plant in Tucker, GA., FAF exceeded expectation to make an indelible impact on North American enthusiast culture. Memories and observations from many of FAF's former staff, competitors, customers, and enthusiasts are illustrated with rarely seen photos, beautifully designed by David Williams.

A sewn-bound, offset press hardback with a laminated case-wrapped cover, each copy of this extremely limited first run will be hand-numbered.

246 DINO BUMPERS: U.S. VERSION - FOUR BRAND NEW, still in factory packaging ... never opened. These bumpers have never been used. In 1979, at the age of 19, I bought my first Ferrari in Modena, Italy. Knowing that I would have to bring the car up to DOT and EPA specs, I went to the Ferrari Factory in Maranello Italy and bought four extra bumpers at the factory (because I was afraid I might screw things up when modifying the existing European version bumpers while attempting to meet DOT specs). The bumpers are STILL in the factory plastic and tape, and they have never been touched by human hand since the summer of 1979. $6,000 USD OBO. 4705
