

Mecum Auctions Kissimmee January 14 - 19, 2025

The Mecum Kissimmee auction starts the 2025 auction season. It will be interesting to see how the results here will compare to Scottsdale auctions later in the month.

The market has been lethargic and while A-list cars have done well, the rest of the market has not caught fire.

Will 2025 be the year of great sales? We will see.

The COVID era has dimmed, prices and sales over the last several years have been steady. A slight depression in prices has not turned into a mass sell-off situation.

This pause is good for our hobby, in as much as it prepares us for the next appreciation sine wave.

My crystal ball remains cloudy, but I feel now is the time to purchase.

No one knows where the bottom of the market is, as well as where prices will top out, but I feel we are much closer to the bottom than on the edge of another dip in the market.

As always Caveat Emptor!

After Auction Report

By Jim Weed

Wow, where to start. I know Mecum kinda starts the auction season for 2025 and it will be the Scottsdale auctions that really set the tone for the rest of the year.

But Mecum has been attracting more high-end Ferraris the last few years. Typically Mecum has a Ferrari or two that get taken around the country to be showcased as the Star Lot.

These cars are usually used as a draw to bring buyers into the tent. Clearly, a Daytona has no business being sold in Indianapolis, or Tulsa. That is not the right venue to receive top dollar for such a car.

From a marketing standpoint it is smart and savvy to use a Ferrari to draw people in. Like the lottery, the chance to see and touch a Ferrari like a Daytona, and to dream of possibly owning such a car, draws people like moths to a flame.

The Kissimmee auction showcased many high quality cars this year. No one can deny having a 250 Lusso, 400 Superamerica, a 275 GTB/4, two Daytona Spyders, a couple of Dinosaurs and an F40 as a pretty good docket.

None of these cars sold.

The no sales are somewhat surprising if the given high bid numbers are accurate.

Both Daytona Spyders were in the $2.5 million range. Are Spyders worth that much more?

There were sales in 2023 in the high $2 million range, and sales in early 2024 over the $3 million mark.

Since August there have been six spyders offered with only one public sale at $2.2 million and one sold after the auction for an undisclosed amount; the estimate range was $2.4 to $2.7 million suggesting the actual amount was under the $2.4 million amount.

If this is representative of the other cars offered here at Mecum, the sellers are reaching for numbers that are just not there - yet.

The year is still early, so the Scottsdale results will be soon scrutinized to see if the market is on a rebound or will continue to remain steady.

250 GT BERLINETTA LUSSO

250 GT/L, S/N 4421 GT (1963). The 32nd of 350 examples manufactured during an 18-month production run and was completed on May 24, 1963, before being delivered new to its first owner via Crepaldi in Milan, Italy. By the early 1980s, chassis 4421 had been relocated to the US, where it was fitted with a 3.3-liter Colombo V12 from a 1965 275 GTB. The car later underwent a refurbishment that included a repaint in black before being purchased in 2000 by its current owner, who commissioned additional refurbishment by Patrick Ottis of Berkeley, CA, between the early 2000s and 2014. The project is said to have included overhauls of the engine, triple Weber carburetors, four-speed manual transmission, four-wheel disc brakes, and suspension as well as a paint correction, a re-trim of the interior in tan leather, and a refresh of the 15" Borrani wire wheels. Now offered with refurbishment records and photographs. 50,996 miles. $1,590,000. 5001

The Ferrari Market Letter is totally independant and is not affiliated with Ferrari S.p.A., Ferrari North America, any Ferrari club or other Ferrari venture. It is published in print AND posted online, approximately once every two weeks (but definitely 24 times a year)!

Classified advertisements from current subscribers offering Ferraris for sale are published free of charge, appear in six consecutive issues unless cancelled earlier, and are then automatically cancelled unless renewed by the advertiser. Ferrari-related memorabilia, miscellaneous, wanted, etc., ads are accepted and published free of charge with certain additional restrictions (i.e. only one ad per category). Free ads are subjected to editing to conserve space. All classified ads must be Ferrari related.

Classified ads from non-subscribers and all display advertisements are published only on a prepaid basis. Please inquire for rates and specifications.

We reserve the right to edit all ads for accuracy and to suit our format. We reserve the right to refuse any ads which do not meet our requirements. We are not responsible for errors in fact or content.

Unsolicited materials for publication consideration are welcome, and will be returned if requested. Material accepted for publication is subject to revision and editing to meet our requirements.
