We often debate the validity of covering the foreign auctions, especially one from the UK with many RHD Ferraris. While we have many subscribers in the UK we still feel the auction results signify what direction the market is headed.

Taking into account the relative rarity of RHD cars in general the prices realized are not substantially higher than auction values here in America.

Ferraris are a commodity and can be sold anywhere in the world where values may be higher. By bringing you, the subscriber, the world view, you can make informed decisions on value.

THE COBRA-FERRARI WARS 1963-1965. 2nd edition. Signed by the author. The true story of the great GT road racing cars of the mid-1960s in the FIA World Championship races. From the book [Jean Guichet]: “The car I drove was a factory car. Dragoni and Florini were there. Ferrari did not enter Vaccarella because he did not want it to appear that he was breaking the strikes at the factory. He entered me because I was French and not as well known to the Italians. That is also why the license plate had the name of another province, not Modena. He wanted to mask Guichet as a private entrant.” $49.95 includes shipping in the U.S. 4421
