

Hilton Head Concours d'Elegance 2018 By Cathy Roush

The Hilton Head Island Concours d'Elegance was held Sunday, November 4, 2018, on the golf course at Port Royal Plantation.

Best of Show went to a 1931 Stutz DV32 Convertible Victoria, owned by renowned collectors Joseph and Margie Cassini. The Cassinis present here every year.

The Paul Doerring Founders Award went to a 1967 American Shelby GT350 Fastback.

And the Best Road & Track vehicle was a 1955 Mercedes-Benz 300SL Gullwing.

This is one of my favorite shows because I love the location. Dad was a judge at this event many times, as well as showing his Tojiero, LOY 501, in 1993, one of the poster cars.

Several of my Ferrari friends brought other marques: a 1970 Dodge Challenger TA, a 1970 Maserati Ghibli Spyder, a 1958 Chevrolet Corvette, 1952 Alard J2X and a 1934 Mercedes-Benz 500 K.

Maserati Ghibli Spyder - Ivan Ruiz

The classes were broken up into 'Salons', if you will: Production and Performance; Rolling Art; Road and Track; and Motorcycle.

There was also a special exhibit 'Life Along the Orient Express' and there were plenty of Porsches to celebrate their 70th Anniversary.

But wait, you may be thinking ... isn't this the Ferrari Market Letter? Why, yes, it is. And that's why I go to car shows, to see the FERRARIS.

This event had a Ferrari class in 2017, like every other car show that year, to celebrate 70 Years of Ferrari. There have been other years with a Ferrari class, but not every year.

This year Ferrari entrants in the concours were few and far between: a no-show 246 GT in the Sports Cars –

International class (which gave us the aforementioned Gullwing), and from the Rare Wheels Collection: 275 GTB/C, S/N 9067, and 400 Superamerica, S/N 2809 SA. Both of these cars earned Palmetto Awards thus not eligible for Best of Show.

275 GTB/C S/N 9067 - Rare Wheels Collection

To see Ferraris, you'd have had to attend Saturday's Car Club Showcase. Which of course, I did.

There were eight Ferraris brought by members of the Ferrari Club of America, South Carolina region.

My favorite, of course, had to be 365 GTB/4, S/N 15757, red with tan leather.

There was one F355 Spider, three 360s, two 430s and a California.

The California got plenty of looks because it was rather striking in Rosso Rubino with cuoio leather.

I enjoy talking with the owners and even found out one of them lives literally around the corner from me.

I told him next time he takes the car out, zoom by and honk the horn.

He has owned a 360 and a 308 previously and promised to send me the info on those cars.

Foreign Cars Italia, authorized Ferrari dealer from Greensboro, NC, set up a mini sales lot with their tent to showcase various Ferrari models. They brought a 488 Spider and a GTC4Lusso.

That rounded out the Ferraris this year. Sigh.

A Premier Event FerrariChat Miami 2018 By FerrariChat

Late October we hosted our premiere event, FerrariChat Miami 2018, and it was an instant success with our guests.

The weather was perfect and we did not experience a single drop of rain. We had Ferraris like the 812 Superfast, F430, and many spiders like the 458, 488, 328 GTS, California and California T.

With sun above us and ocean around us, it was the perfect environment to drop the top and cruise around the same town as Miami Vice. Here is everything that happened at FerrariChat Miami 2018.

After months of planning, day one finally arrived. All the cars arrived safely thanks to Total Care Transportation and they were parked in their own private lot.

Guests began arriving at the Ritz-Carlton Key Biscayne in the early evening, and after getting settled in their rooms, they joined us on the Grand Lawn for a reception and drinks right next to the ocean.

As the guests approached the reception, they were given customized event credentials and swag items. Swag included FerrariChat Miami Eddie Bauer jackets, Giorgio Piola shirts and posters, and personalized bottles of Crown Royal with each couple's name embroidered on the purple Crown bag as well as printed on an authentic label.

Dinner was a delicious assortment of fresh seafood, vegetables, and more. After washing it all down with drinks from the open bar, everyone mingled under the moonlit palm trees and eventually transitioned from the Grand Lawn to the hotel restaurant bar. Before calling it a night, everyone was offered a creme of the crop Trinitas cigar from Providencia. FerrariChat Miami 2018 had officially begun.

The first full day of Ferrari action started bright and early, and all of the eager attendees met downstairs by their cars ready to head toward Miami-Homestead Speedway.

We had the whole race track to ourselves for the day, and after everyone parked in the pits, they headed upstairs for breakfast in the pit room that overlooks the startling line. Breakfast featured classics like french toast, eggs, bacon, bagels and more. And while everyone enjoyed their meal, professional driver Guy Cosmo spoke to them and gave them insights from the world of racing, especially racing Ferraris.

With everyone fed and fully awake, they shuffled into their first class with the driving instructors and gained an overview of the road course within the main track.

Though Miami-Homestead Speedway is known for hosting the final NASCAR race of each series, they actually have a very impressive road course that proved to be an absolute blast for each driver.

After learning the track in a classroom, everyone did a lead-follow lap with the instructors. And before each driver was free to fly around the speedway, we set up a short 1/8 mile drag strip and raced each other.

Though it wasn't the most official drag strip, the drivers loved it. A certain electric car with a performance package joined the fun and lined up against the 812 Superfast. While the giant battery pack was much quicker off the line, the 812 closed in effortlessly and won the battle for team internal combustion engine.

After some fast laps, another delicious meal, and more fast laps, it was almost time to head back to the Ritz, but not before a 458 GT3 showed up and put on a show for all of us. Such a wild machine, it was truly a treat to watch (and hear) it race around the speedway. All in all, the private track day was a huge success and FerrariChat Miami was off to a fantastic start.

After returning back to home base on Key Biscayne, everyone relaxed and prepared for dinner at the historic Curtiss Mansion in Miami Springs.

The Curtiss name is that of Glenn Curtiss, the famous American inventor and businessman associated with the Wright brothers. As an iconic pioneer of aviation and other motorized transportation, Curtiss supposedly had his hand in 500 patents and 40 inventions, and met with historic figures such as Henry Ford and Alexander Graham Bell at the very home that we all had dinner and drinks.

As everyone departed from the bus, they were met with a refreshing mojito. Then they entered the mansion and enjoyed live piano, appetizers, and a tour of the property.

Dinner was a build-your-own risotto bar with options like chicken, shrimp, vegetables, cheeses, and more. Caterers prepared your custom dish right in front of you, and then they served dessert hors d'oeuvres.

Catering was provided by Joy Wallace and they worked with us throughout the entire event, presenting flavors from all over the culinary spectrum. With all of our guests in good spirits, we loaded up the bus and then headed back to the hotel bar and closed it down.

On Friday, we had our poker run, a competition that started out at the Ritz-Carlton and ended in the Florida Keys. Each contestant was given a card at a designated stop, and the Ferrari with the best hand at the end of the route wins. The first card was handed out at the Ritz, with the following card handed out at The Collection, an exotic car dealership in Miami. The group ate brunch surrounded by the newest Ferraris, and they were also given a tour of the dealership and the workshop.

The other stops were posted along the way in the Keys, with the final being at the Amara Cay Resort in Islamorada. The rally was the most scenic part of the event, and the drivers had many opportunities to exercise their prancing horse clear of traffic.

The participants were treated to lunch on the beach with gourmet cuisine and a gorgeous view. This year, Dom and Carrie Stroud won the competition and in turn received a Giorgio Piola G5 Sport Chrono Watch worth $2,985.

After the poker run, it was time to relax and unwind as dinner at the Island Gardens Marina was approaching.

The Island Gardens Marina has an astounding view to say the least. It is located right on the water of Watson Island and has a complete view of the sun setting behind the Miami Skyline. Guests were treated to more delectable catering and drinks while they drank and danced the night away.

As for the fourth day, it was all about luxury. Our guests had their cars on display around the opulent shops and restaurants of the Miami Design District.

We worked with the city to shut down 41st Street, and 12 of Miami PD's finest stood guard around the cars.

Some of the shops near the cars included Prada, Louis Vuitton, Gucci, etc. It was a well spent day, so to speak, with the participants doing some damage to the shop's inventories.

Not only were our participants' Ferraris present, but many others from around Miami joined the group. There were TDFs, 488s, 458s, 430s, Californias, a 599 GTO, a Speciale Aperta, a McLaren F1 car, and even a couple Lamborghini's snuck their way in. Adding a special touch, our participants were given personalized show plaques that described their car and its specifications.

The grandeur continued into the night as our group headed to the historic Moore Building. Also located in the Design District, The Moore Building was built in 1921 and holds great significance to the area. All the stops were pulled out that night as we had our gala, the most extravagant of our events that weekend. Michael Schumacher's famous F1 car was on display and caught the eyes of many as they ate, drank and danced to the DJ booth. Gala goers were mingling, laughing and having a great time with others who shared their affinity for motorsports.

It started with an exclusive cocktail reception, hosted on the only rooftop in the entire Design District available for private events. Dinner, dancing, and more drinks were downstairs in the main foyer. The main course included delectable short rib and cauliflower with a delicious yam puree, and dessert was crème brûlée. It was a spectacular evening to round out our inaugural event.

FerrariChat Miami was an exciting blur from start to finish. Its crazy how many things were fit into less than five days.

It could not have been done without the support of the Motorsport Network and our dedicated event coordinator Shawn Richard. We are so thankful to have had such a special group of people join us on our first journey in the event space and we look forward to potentially expanding this event to more locations in the future.

The biggest question now is, where should we go next? After a wild couple of days, FerrariChat Miami had reached the final event on the schedule, a farewell brunch on the Grand Lawn.

Just as it began, everyone gathered near the ocean and enjoyed an incredible feast, only this time there was a mimosa bar.

Sunday morning was considerably quieter, as almost everyone was exhausted from the non-stop fun over the last couple of days. After brunch, the cars were loaded up and most people relaxed under the sun before heading home.

1954 375 Plus Sutton Spyder S/N 0478 AM

Originally raced in Scaglietti trim by legendary drivers, Jack McAfee, Ken Miles and Carroll Shelby, only to be unceremoniously crashed by Shelby at Palm Springs. Re-bodied in 1956 by Hollywood-based Jack Sutton, who earned the nickname, "America's Scaglietti," with 0478 sold to the privateer racing team of Frank Arciero. Fledgling driver, Dan Gurney, would go on to multiple victories in 0478. Considered one of the original eight 375 Plus with its massive 4.9 litre V12 engine. 0478 AM is a 1950s icon.

1959 Ferrari 250/500TRC (DK Engineering) Titled as a 1962 Ferrari 250 GTE

F40 Motorsports is proud to offer this very rare DK Engineering 250/500 TRC (TR83). S/N 2423 was originally converted from a 250 GTE 2+2 Series I LHD into a 250/500 TRC by David Cottingham himself - this of the DK Engineering Fame, in the 1980s. It retains its original title as a 250 Ferrari, and is an absolutely stunning example of true old world craftsmanship and unsurpassed quality. This fine TRC has been owned by only a handful of the most discerning automobile collectors. Eligible for historic events as well as the Copper State 1000 and Colorado Grand to name a couple. The last DK Engineering car came up for sale three years ago.

A unique opportunity to own one of the most beautiful, rare, and most sought after David Cottingham TRs. It is stunning and ready to go. You won't find another like this, and it's here at F40 Motorsports for your viewing.
